The diagram consists of five square boxes arranged in a 2x3 grid, with the bottom-right box missing. Each box is divided into two horizontal sections. The top section of each box contains a large 'X' formed by two diagonal lines. The bottom section of each box contains the word 'Hardware' in a serif font, followed by four lines of small, illegible text, and a 'Select' button with a square icon.

The diagram consists of five identical rectangular boxes arranged in a 2x3 grid (with the bottom-right position empty). Each box is divided into two horizontal sections. The top section of each box contains a large 'X' formed by two diagonal lines crossing in the center. The bottom section of each box contains the word 'Hardware' in a bold, sans-serif font. Below the word 'Hardware' is a single line of small, illegible text. At the bottom of each box is a radio button icon followed by the word 'Select'.
